Our Regular Semi-Annual Pre-Inventory Sale

Every year just before stock-taking we hold this important event—and the wonderful economies it provides never fail to attract great crowds of buyers to "The Dependable Store." It is the occasion when every department manager in the house makes every effort to dispose of all goods possible, and to lighten stocks that show too great a surplus for this season of the year. It is the harvest time for economical buyers—so recognized and appreciated by hundreds of Washington women. Spread out on this page of The Times are the interesting details of the reductions that rule on seasonable goods of almost every description. Read every line—and let nothing prevent your presence here tomorrow.
